UNI SNOW GAMES - CODE OF BEHAVIOUR:

The full USNZ Code of behaviour can be found in the USNZ Disciplinary Policy on the USNZ Website (<http://www.universitiesport.org.nz/policy/competition-policies/>), once you have signed and submitted this registration form you agree to abide by the full code.

Students attending the NZ University Snow Games 2008 do so as representatives of their Universities, Students' Associations and University sports club(s) and are subject to the regulations laid out by those bodies and University Sport New Zealand (USNZ), the latter being the organisers of the Games.

For the purposes of this Code of Behaviour, attendance at the Uni Snow Games includes participation in Uni Snow Games activities from accreditation to departure day as well as travel to / from Uni Snow Games on transport organised by your Students' Association and/or by USNZ.

No alcohol will be consumed on transport that is organised by your Students' Association, nor in or on any sports venue utilised for the Uni Snow Games, or at other times expressly stated by USNZ.

Consideration must be shown at all times towards venue operators and owners, transport operators and their property, accommodation agencies and their property, billets and Uni Snow Games organisers and members of the general public.

In cases where your behaviour discredits you, your Students' Association, your University, your sports club or the image of students in general you will be subject to disciplinary action by USNZ or other bodies.

Disciplinary action may include;

- A) Being excluded from the Games and all related activities.
- B) Being removed from Games transport at any time.
- C) Being removed from the team and directed to return home.
- D) Having your student ID and Games accreditation confiscated until your return to your home campus.
- E) Disciplinary action on return to your home campus will be subject to the discretion of your Students' Association Executive and may include:
 - i) Banning you from representing your Students' Association at future USNZ events;
 - ii) Having your Students' Association membership and its privileges revoked;
 - iii) Referral to the disciplinary procedures of your University.

In addition, USNZ has the power to fine you, disqualify you and/or your team from all Games points, and to rule you ineligible for future University sports events and awards, including NZU Blues, selection in University touring teams and future Games competitions.

This Registration Form is only valid if:

- A) This has been signed by the relevant competitor
- B) All the information has been appropriately completed
- C) Payment of your registration fee has been received by your Team Manager (according to your campus policy)

Registration Fees including Refund Policy:

- A) All competitors attending the NZ University Snow Games 2008 are required to pay a Registration Fee which will be charged to their Students' Association (or Clubs) at or around the time of the Snow Games. The registration fee covers the basic cost of your attendance at the Games including accreditation, your race bib and the associated social programme events.
- B) Competitors from AUT, Canterbury, Lincoln, Massey Albany, Massey Palmerston North, Massey Wellington, Otago, Victoria and Waikato will be charged a registration fee of $55 (including GST) per competitor to compete in the Games.
- C) Competitors from Auckland University will be charged $82.50 (including GST) per competitor to compete in the Games.
- D) Competitors from non-universities will be charged $110.00 (including GST) per competitor to compete in the Games.
- E) Officials (non-competing) are NOT required to pay the registration fee; teams may bring 1 official per 5 competitors.
- F) Team supporters will be charged the relevant Registration fee to be registered in the Games.
- G) The Registration Fee will NOT be refunded once the USNZ deadline for entries has passed (13 August 2008). Competitors withdrawing from the Games after this deadline has passed will be liable for the Registration Fee.
- H) Competitors will also pay an Event Fee which covers the cost of your participation in the events you have entered.
- I) All Competitors will be charged $15 ($13.33 plus $1.67 GST) per event entered. There is no difference between students from different Tertiary Institutes in the level of the Event Fee.
- J) In the event of poor weather causing the cancellation of an event, the organisers will attempt to re-schedule the event later in the Games. If the event cannot be re-scheduled then event fees will be refunded to competitors. If the event is completed successfully at a later stage in the Games then event fees will NOT be refunded.
- K) Competitors may switch between events at no charge providing that the change occurs no later than 8am on the morning of the event for which they are entered. Changes cannot be made after this deadline.
- L) Competitors withdrawing from events will not receive a refund of their entry fee (assuming the event takes place).
- M) Please note that each Student's Association or Club may add other charges on top of the Registration and Event fee, which may include items such as team wear, transportation, accommodation etc.
- N) Please note that the Games operates a NO REFUND policy – if your registration is received by USNZ then your Students' Association WILL be charged for your attendance at the Games regardless of whether you accredit or not.
- O) Competitors may purchase a 6 day lift pass for Cardrona for $195 including GST or a 4 out of 6 day pass for $160 including GST.
